Habitat for Humanity York County Receives $5,000 from Community Matters More!

Kennebunk, Maine -- Habitat for Humanity York County received a check from Barbara Conda, Bangor Savings Bank Branch Manager in York, for Bangor Savings Bank Foundation's Community Matters More program for $5,000. "Habitat for Humanity of York County is grateful for the show of support from community members who voted earlier this year for Habitat during the Community Matters More program," said Doug Fraser, President of the Board of Directors of Habitat for Humanity of York County. "We would like to thank the Bangor Savings Bank Foundation for the support of the valuable work of nonprofits throughout the state."

The $5,000 donation will support Habitat's affordable housing mission. Habitat is currently working to complete our 27th home in West Kennebunk and begin building our 28th home later this summer in Wells. Habitat volunteers have completed 32 home weatherization projects in York County.

"This grant award from our Foundation to Habitat for Humanity York County signifies our commitment to improving the quality of life in the communities we serve. We are proud to partner with organizations like the Habitat for Humanity York County to help families reach their goal of owning a home," says Barbara Conda, York Branch Manager, Bangor Savings Bank.

Habitat has many opportunities to volunteer on a building project, at the ReStore, assisting with weatherizations, in the office or serving on a committee. Anyone interested in participating or donating to Habitat is encouraged to call the HFHYC office at 207-985-4850 or visit the website at www.habitatyorkcounty.org.
